

Dramatic Play

Also called pretend play, involves acting out situations and taking on the role of another person.

Creating dramatic play opportunities for your child doesn't have to be elaborate, in fact, simple is better!

Find items through family & friends, second hand stores, or in your own home!

Dolls, trucks, blocks, blankets, teddy bears, used clothes, footwear, hats, old phones & phone books, pots & pans, old cameras, kitchen utensils, empty food containers/boxes, baskets, fishing tackle box, goggles, tools, band-aids, flower pots, artificial flowers, wands, pails, paint brushes, pencils, markers, paper, books, magazines, clip boards, scissors...

The possibilities are endless!!
